the Author of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

HE Lines I here send you, were occasioned by reading some Passages in the celebrated Essay on Man. I hope they won't be thought too severe, considering how free this Gentleman makes with Persons of the greatest Rank and Character; that neither the Long Robe, the Mire, nor the worn with never so much Honour Dignity, can screen the Wearers from the Last malicious Satyrift.

I am, SIR,
Your's, &c.
RUSTICUS.

What P---pe says be true, nor all a Jest, that thro' the World whatever is, is best; but a Peg, if from the Fabrick stole, quite unhinge, and ruin the Whole, that by Consequence, within the Plan, must be somewhere, such a thing as Man: all as plain a Consequence, I hope, must be somewhere, such a Man as P---pe: where there must,---and best of all there shou'd, a hodgepodge Sound of Bad and Good; wide Extreams identically join'd, set so in Body, and in Mind, can the Best in foulest Colours paint, North in fair --- make B---I---broke a Saint. Junter-like, by Turns blow hot and cold: like B---I---n, like W---I---n curse and scold. impell'd by diff'rent Fits and Qualms, and loose Sonnets, and lampoon the Psalms: try down others for their least Amours, keep at home a Brace, or so, of Wh---res. country's Foes carefs, and Friends revile, on the Loyal, on the Faction's smile. his Prince, his keenest Malice arm, wipe his Mouth, and cry, pray where's the Harm?

COUNTRY NEWS.

SIR,

York, Aug. 21.

Several Noblemen and Gentlemen, desirous to lay the Foundation of a most beneficent Charity, viz. that of providing for such sick and infirm Persons, as are destitute of proper Assistance, and oftentimes of common Necessaries, having, after due Consideration, agreed, that nothing would more effectually answer the End proposed, than fixing an Infirmary at York, (there being nothing of that Sort within this Populous County) and supporting the same by voluntary Contributions; a Subscription Roll has been prepared for the Purpose, the Preamble of which is as follows.

Whereas great Numbers of sick and lame Persons within the County of York, (who are not entitled to Parochial Relief) are known to languish miserably for want of seasonable and proper Assistance and Advice: And whereas among those who do receive Relief from their respective Parishes, many suffer extremely, and are sometimes lost, partly for want of Accommodations and proper Medicines in their own Houses or Lodgings, (the Closeness and Unwholesomeness of which is too often one great Cause of their Illness) and partly by the imprudent laying out of what is allow'd, or by the Ignorance or ill Management of those about them.

We whose Names are underwritten, desiring, as far as in us lies, to provide some Remedy for this great Misery of our poor industrious Neighbours, and to lay the Foundation of a most beneficent and extensive Charity, do subscribe the following Sums of Money to be by us paid yearly (during Pleasure) by quarterly Payments, for the procuring, furnishing and defraying the necessary Expences of an Infirmary within the City of York, for the Entertainment of such poor, sick, or infirm Persons inhabiting the said County, as shall be recommended by any of the Subscribers or Benefactors, with the Approbation and Consent of the major Part of the Trustees present.

As the Nature and End of this Undertaking is sufficiently set forth in this Preamble, there is good Reason to hope, that the Religious and Benevolent, whose Fortunes enable them to do Good, will with Cheerfulness encourage a Work so humane and beneficial to the most miserable of their Fellow Creatures: And as this Undertaking is already encouraged by the Liberality of many Subscribers, by inserting this in your next Paper, for the Information of all such charitable Persons as are disposed to contribute towards the carrying on this useful Design, you will oblige,

Your humble Servant, &c.

LONDON.

Governor Pyke of St. Helena, has wrote by the Royal Guardian, Capt Hoadly, lately arrived from China, Fort St. George and St. Helena, that a French Ship from Bengall for France touched at St. Helena, which had in her Passage called at the Island of Mauritius, and there learned that an English Ship with Jury Masts had, for a Day or two, appeared off that Island, and fired several Guns as in Distress; but the Governor being absent, no Boats dare go off to her, so she made Sail and bore away. Mauritius lies between the Latitudes of 20 and 21 South, and about 120 Leagues to the Eastward of Madagascar. The Governor adds, that in Point of Time, he fears it could not be the Suffex; (who not far from thence had been deserted by her Officers and Crew, 16 excepted) but Persons here, well skill'd in that Navigation, are of a different Opinion, and believe the next News of her will be from Bombay.

Cargo of the Royal Guardian, from China and Fort St. George: Arrived on Account of the United Company of Merchants of England, Trading to the East Indies, viz.

A Dialogue on One Thousand Seven Hundred and Thirty Eight. Together with a Prophecy Postscript, as to One Thousand Seven Hundred and Thirty Nine.

Printed for T. Cooper, at the Globe in Peter-nor-row.
The Author of the above Poem having been for some time past detained in the Country, takes this first Opportunity on his Return, of giving Mr. Pope Thanks for his candid Declaration, in assuring the Publick that the same was neither written or supervised by him. As all Advertisements are supposed to be written for their Information, it is easy to penetrate his Drift was to Re-advertise his own Poem; and that he must have been under some Dread, lest his Interest in the Sale thereof should suffer, on account of this Poem's appearing in Answer to his; the Author of which, being as much above asking his Assistance, as he thinks it beneath him to make use of such Artifices. — However, to be as candid as Mr. Pope, the Author of the above Poem thinks it but as fair to assure him, that the Poem Dialogue, inserted in this Day's Gazetteer, was neither wrote or supervised by him, or does he know the Author thereof. Thursday, Aug. 24, 1738.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handfomness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, fine, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly take away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughness, Morpew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly, for it quickly makes the Skin become so incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as to cause Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red or rough, to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and most charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the least Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lawn, and is very agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it under various other Names, beware therefore of such Impositions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to so many Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where else in England.
